Are you ok with having more private than public members ?

Email would probably be better since there are so many moving parts.

That looks right. Yes, Moore, Brown, Morris and Kirkwood are all private.

For our January meeting, I'll probably suggest adding either Steve Shular (Mayor Strickland's Neighborhood Special Assistant) or Sandy Bromley (head of Shelby County's Victims Assistance Center) for the only remaining open slot.

Lee Harris has not yet given us a firm yes, but I assume that will happen.

You have the bios for Rausch, Harris, Bonner, and Myers. I will get you the bios for Moore, Morris, Brown and Kirkwood. I suggest the Nominating Committee just have a quick conference call - or you could even do it by email.

Bill,

This is my latest count on board members.

Current: 25 Private, 21 Public. Total : 46

After Clarkson, Coffee, Hopson, McGowen, Moore and Turner retire: 23 Private, 17 Public. Total: 40

After Rausch, Bonner, Myers, Harris, Stevie Moore, Paul Morris, Chief Darling, Vanessa Brown and Pastor Kirkwood are added: 27 Private, 22 Public. Total: 49

We have tried to keep a 50-50 public-private mix on the board. This would tip the balance in favor of the private. By the way, I classified the following as Private: Moore, Morris, Brown and Kirkwood. Is that the way you see it ?

We could have the nominating committee ( Terry, Blair and me and you as ex officio ) meet by conference call next week. Should we give others on the EC the opportunity to participate ?

Thanks,

John

Kevin Clarkson has not returned my calls so I think we can send him a thank you letter. This would open up another Private seat on the board.
